

FREE EDUCATIONAL EXCURSION FOR THIRD COUNTRY NATIONALS (TCNS) TO ANOGRYA VILLAGE

SATURDAY 11/12/2021 @ 9:00 – 15.30 aprox.

Agios Athanasios Municipality invites you to join the upcoming free educational trip to Anogyra village with the accompany of a professional tour guide!

Located in the Lemesos district, the village of Anogyra is just 45 km away from Lemesos town. Anogyra was once a main carob-grower and is famous for its traditional sweet 'Pasteli', which is made from carob syrup, and only produced traditionally in the village.

The history of the village dates back to the Neolithic era, and its name may originate from the plant 'anagryris' (which grows in the village), or that the village that exists today constituted the upper ('ano') part of the village once known as 'Gyroi'.

The program of activities includes:

- Visit Pastelli Workshop
- Visit Anagryris Essential Oils park. Visitors will have the chance to learn about herbs, essential oils, distillation process and natural cosmetics production.
- Workshop of soap production with olive oil
- FREE Lunch (Cypriot traditional cuisine)

Meeting Point: Agios Athanasios Municipality (parking) 8:45 am

Deadline for participation: 3/12/2021 (max number of 50 participants)
